Chiropractic

HISTORICAL

The principle of Chiropractic adjustment was discovered twenty-three years ago; the science of Chiropractic has since been formulated.

EXPLANATORY

The brain is that wonderful organ which we intuitively recognize as the seat of all our power. It is not difficult to understand, in fact, we all understand that in some strange way which has become so common to us as not to seem strange, that our sight, our hearing, our feeling and all of the other powers come from the brain. However, the question HOW this is accomplished rarely presents itself to us. Of course, we would all readily answer so far as the eye is concerned, by the optic nerve; but it presents a more difficult problem when we take the case, for instance, of a sensation in the stomach. In cases so remote from the brain, we immediately fall back upon theory and to accusing the stomach of some wrong on its part, and do not assign the sensation in that locality to its true origin, because we have not been so educated. Yet we understand in an indefinite roundabout way, that every sensation in our entire body is an emanation from the brain. If this were not true, a wound would be painless.

When the question is presented to us in this light, we begin to think of that wonderful extension of brain substance from the brain itself, called NERVE TRUNKS. Upon a close examination of the nerve trunks we find that they are composed of millions of small threads, called nerve filaments, and that they extend to every atom of the entire body, and control every function of the body; that is to say, they control circulation, assimilation, seeing, hearing, smelling, tasting, feeling, heat and all the phenomena of the human organism.

It will be quite readily seen therefore that when these nerves are all in normal operation, every function of the entire body must be normal, and that any derangement of the nerves will equally derange the function which they, in normal condition, produce.

The brain covers itself by a number of bones which we call the skull, and the spinal cord is encased in a canal composed of twenty-four bones, named vertebrae. Between each pair of vertebrae is an opening through which a trunk nerve emanates. (See Cut.) When a vertebra of the spine, by any cause, is changed in its relation to another vertebra, the nerve that lies between will be pinched, and abnormal function, or disease, is produced at the end of that nerve, or at the end of the filaments of that nerve.

DEFINITIONS

"Treat (Webster)—To care for medicinally or surgically; to manage in the use of appliances or remedies, as to treat disease, a wound or patient."

"Adjust (Webster)—To make exact fit; to fit; to make correspondent or conformable; to bring to proper relation."

THE CHIROPRACTIC WAY

A Chiropractor does not treat disease, but adjusts the vertebrae into normal position, turns on the nerve supply, and nature restores normal conditions.

A qualified Chiropractor, in adjusting the vertebrae, uses nothing but his hands.

Because you have no pain in your back is no sign the vertebrae of your spine are in perfect order. If a nerve leading to your liver is pinched, where it emits from the spine, the disease will be in the liver and not in the back. This is true of all the organs and tissues of the body.

Chiropractic is purely a mechanical science and has nothing whatever to do with medicine or prescribing or treating or massage or manipulation of the muscles. When the vertebrae are put in place, and the impinged nerve released, the cause of disease and abnormal function is removed.

Adjustment of the vertebrae is accomplished with ease and accuracy by a skilled Chiropractor.

Investigation will conclusively demonstrate the merits of our claims.

THE CHIROPRACTORS LISTED BELOW are members of, and have the endorsement of the ALAMEDA COUNTY CHIROPRACTORS ASSOCIATION.

The efforts that are being made in the dyeing and cleaning business to get the industry on a better footing are worthy of the attention of every man and woman who has at heart better sanitary conditions and economy in caring for wearing apparel and household draperies. There are hundreds of thousands of places throughout the United States that are held out to the public as cleaning establishments that are in no way entitled to do so. This community is no exception to the general rule. Our plants are thoroughly equipped with everything needed to render a satisfactory cleaning service. Our patrons will do their friends a service by calling their attention to these facts.

Ministers

PIERCE, REV. J. H.—All persons with marriage licenses can have modern wedding ceremony at any hour, at 436-5th St., opposite Hall of Records, where Alameda County marriage licenses are issued. We have added an uptown office, 420-17th St., rear of P. O. and C. S. Church. Fee for ceremony during office hours, reduced to $2. Most people consider marriage by a judge worthless; some nations refuse their certificates, calling them unhallowed unions. Licenses secured at night and on holidays.

"Long Distance" is prompt, inexpensive and satisfactory.

There's a sales possibility wherever your telephone voice can reach, and the telephone at your elbow affords a method of introduction commanding instant attention.

Have you ever used your telephone for a selling campaign?

DAYS vs. MINUTES

There is seldom a business transaction between men in different cities that cannot be completed by telephone in less time than it takes to dictate the average business letter.

Add to the "high cost of letterwriting" the delay and suspense attendant upon the mail, and the next time you have business out of town, do it by telephone---the prompt, economical way.

A LITTLE JOURNEY

through the pages of the Classified Section of the Bell Telephone Directory will prove its usefulness to you.

The dealers in the various commodities you need and use are classified under more than fifteen hundred separate headings so that you may readily find the seller of anything you desire to purchase.
